

Blue Harbor Capital — Quarterly Investor Statement

Blue Harbor Global Macro Fund, Ltd. | Period Ending March 31, 2025

This statement summarizes Blue Harbor Global Macro Fund's performance for the first quarter of 2025. Unit Value at quarter end stood at 218.94, up from 205.30 at the start of the period, representing a Net Return of 6.6% for the quarter. Assets Under Management grew to approximately USD 1.2 billion, reflecting both performance gains and net subscriptions.

Month-by-month, the fund returned 2.1% in January, 1.4% in February, and 2.9% in March, outperforming the Bloomberg Global Macro Peer Index, which returned 0.9%, 0.5%, and 1.1% over the same three months respectively.

Portfolio Manager Notes: We increased duration exposure in developed-market rates ahead of anticipated central bank pivots, and maintained a modest long-USD stance against a basket of EM currencies. Since the fund's launch in June 2019, cumulative net return stands at 118.4%.